- Audit course details would be provided at the time of Registration. Audit courses applied for and not attended would result in a fine.
- Course Registration at the start of the semester is compulsory. Course registration must be done in person. A student would not be considered a registered student of SLS otherwise.
- Internship expenses to be paid on actual by the student and would remain compulsory.
- Audit Courses and Internships are not the liabilities for the University. They are proposed with good academic intensions. No arguments for admission to a certain audit course or for conducting a specific internship would be entertained.
- For participation in audit courses and internships, good discipline is mandatory. Indiscipline during any activity would result in that student being debarred from all future activities.
- Students are supposed to stay back for the date of review of evaluated answer sheets. No arguments after that for evaluation would be entertained.
- All above activities and their proposed dates are subject to change with intimation in extraordinary circumstances. Students are advised to check their emails for all such notifications.
- Students are advised to book their tickets for the vacation only after consulting their faculty advisors and SLS office.
