

Educational and Cultural Visit to University of Hyderabad

Students of School of Liberal Studies, Pandit Deendayal Petroleum University had an opportunity to visit and interact with the faculty members of the Central University of Hyderabad as part of the week long educational, cultural and exposure program from January 28 to February 3, 2020. The group of students was accompanied by an SLS faculty member, Mr. Manoj Sahoo from the Department of Social Sciences.

The students also participated as volunteers at Study in Gujarat campaign initiated and organized by the Government of Gujarat at Hyderabad.

The students actively participated in interactive sessions with the faculty members at Central University of Hyderabad. The more emphasis was given to the prospects of emerging research areas and future career paths as part of the interactions. Prof. Debashis Acharya and Dr. Pramad Mishra led the group into various dimensions of study including two special sessions on Research Methodology and Economics. Students also visited the specialized centers of excellence like Life science, Nanotech and Earthsciences at the Central University of Hyderabad. The importance of diversity amongst student groups and its impact on educational scenario was also discussed at length.

The study group as well visited Lumbini Park and Buddha Statue at Hussain Sagar Lake, Charminar, Ramoji Film City, Salarjung Museum and Golkonda Fort.

The weeklong visit turned out to be academically and culturally immersive program.

